Slayton Search Partners Announces Promotion of Molly

Slayton Search Partners, a globally respected leader in retained executive search, is proud to announce the promotion of Molly Hull to Senior Vice President and Principal.

Molly joined the Slayton team in 2008, progressing through increasing levels of responsibility and consistently demonstrating her ability to understand the industry. Prior to Slayton, Molly worked with a global executive search firm and graduated from the University of Delaware.

Her contribution to searches across the Manufacturing, Industrial, Consumer and Financial Services industries have been highly valuable for the firm. Her experience at Slayton spans a broad spectrum of functional disciplines, including General Management, Sales and Marketing, Finance, Information Technology, and Supply Chain among others.

In her new role as Senior Vice President and Principal, Molly will expand her new business development activities within the consumer and industrial practices while continuing to be heavily involved in candidate development in support of her and her fellow partners' engagements.

"Molly has proven to be an extremely valuable member of our team," comments John Nimesheim, Managing Director at Slayton Search Partners. "Her leadership, guidance, and ability to successfully execute searches and build strong relationships with candidates are only a few of the many qualities Molly demonstrates day in and day out. We look forward to many great things for Molly."

"I'm grateful for this incredible opportunity to advance in my career," comments Molly. "Slayton Search Partners has built a great team of people, and I'm excited to take this next step alongside them and serve our clients in an even greater capacity."
